

Stefano Casati was born in Verona on 26 June 1963.

Education and training:

- High School Diploma (Scientific Studies) at G. Fracastoro High School of Verona in 1982.
- University Degree in Medicine and Surgery at the University of Verona, 1990.
- Professional qualification, 1990.
- Postgraduate Specialization in Ophthalmology, 1994.
- Conscientious objector at Unione italiana Ciechi of Verona, 1991-1992.
- Lecturer at State Conversion Course in the area of clinical visual impairment, 1992.
- Lecturer at Specialized Polyvalent Course in the area of clinical visual impairment from 1992 to 1996.
- Ophthalmologist consultant of VDS (Verona Diabetes Study) at CAD (Antidiabetic Center of Verona) from 1996.
- Ophthalmologist, member of “Commissione Medica Provinciale Ciechi” (Provincial Medical Committee for Blindness) from 1996 to 2016
- Researcher fellow at the University of Verona from July 2003 to September 2004.
Research field: retinal screening by retinography in diabetes of evolutive age
- Ophthalmologist at the Eye Clinic of the University of Verona, October-December 2004
- Full time university researcher SDS MED/30 – Diseases of the Visual System at the University of Verona, from 01/01/2005.
- Full time research scientist SDS MED/30 – Diseases of the Visual System at the University of Verona, from 01/01/2008 to present.
- Highly specialized function in Diabetic Retinopathy and Retinal Medical Pathology from January 2010 to present.